

"Khonik AI" Privacy Policy

Effective Date: 1th of January 2024.

Your privacy is extremely important to us. This privacy policy outlines how "Khonik AI" collects, uses, and protects your personal information.

1. Information Collection

We collect the minimal necessary personal information required for the use of our services. This includes your name and email address.

2. Use of Information

The collected information is used exclusively for sending transactional email messages, as well as for improving the quality of our services.

3. Sharing Information with Third Parties

We may share your personal information with email newsletter operators for purposes directly related to sending notifications from "Khonik AI". We require all third parties to maintain the confidentiality of your data and use only those services that provide an adequate level of personal information protection.

4. Protecting Your Information

We employ standard protection methods to ensure the security of your personal data from unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction.

5. Controlling Your Information

You have the right to access, correct, and delete your personal information at any time through your personal account on our website.

6. Changes to the Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to make changes to this privacy policy at any time. Any changes will be communicated through our website or via email.
